Alam niyo ba na noong June 2021, inakusahan ni Manny Pacquiao na mas malawak ang korapsyon ng gobyernong Duterte.

Sabi mismo ni Pacquiao, “three times more corrupt” ito kaysa sa nakaraang administrasyon.

Then, Digong aggressively challenged Manny Pacquiao to make a list of who the officials involved were, as well as the agencies. He warned Pacquiao that if he failed to provide proof, he would campaign against him in the 2022 election.

Then, Manny immediately accepted the challenge. Pinangalanan niya ang mga ahensya tulad ng DOH sa multi-billion pandemic spending, kasama ang pagbili ng overpriced rapid test kits, masks, and PPEs.

He also mentioned rampant programmatic corruption in the DPWH and the missing P10.4 billion pandemic financial aid in the DSWD.

DPWH corruption has been very rampant during Duterte's term, even the Discayas said they started engaging with the DPWH in 2016.

Even with that, Duterte chose to hide these anomalies because his government was benefiting from it.

Itinuturing ni Sen. Loren Legarda na mga bayani ang '18 marines na nag-deliver ng male-maletang pera sa ilang politiko.

Matatandaang nakapaloob sa affidavit ng 18 Marines ang alegasyon na nakatanggap si Senator Loren Legarda ng dalawang medium-sized na maleta.

Mas matindi talaga ang imbento ng mga Marites mula sa sobre, biglang naging maleta! Mahihiya na niyan si Scout Ojeda. Sino muna si 'Security Ojeda'? Pagbasa pa lang ng address, sablay at bopol na agad.

Kating-kating mag-imbento pero hirap na hirap alamin kung ano ba talaga ang totoo: maleta ba o sobre? At saan ba talaga ang address? Mahirap manindigan kung puro kayo kwento pero walang mailapag na ebidensya. Zero resibo, purong daldal.

Sabi nga namin, madaling patunayan ang address—puntahan ninyo at huwag iasa sa Google. Magpakita kayo ng tapang doon, hindi 'yung puro kayo hanash, dami n'yong ebas. Hahaha

Kayo na ang humusga.

AS OF NOW, THE PHILIPPINES HAS TWO INTERNATIONAL SHRINES!

The Catholic Church in the Philippines has reached another historic milestone. The Vatican has officially granted international shrine status to the National Shrine and Parish of St. Padre Pio in Batangas, making it the second shrine in the country to receive this rare and prestigious recognition.

The first Philippine shrine to be elevated to this status was the International Shrine of Our Lady of Peace and Good Voyage in Antipolo City, a beloved pilgrimage destination that has welcomed generations of devotees seeking the maternal care and intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

But what does "international shrine" really mean?

An international shrine is a place of worship recognized by the Holy See as having a special significance not only for a local diocese or a nation, but for the universal Church. It is a sacred destination that attracts pilgrims from different countries and serves as a center of prayer

An international shrine is a place of worship recognized by the Holy See as having a special significance not only for a local diocese or a nation, but for the universal Church. It is a sacred destination that attracts pilgrims from different countries and serves as a center of prayer, devotion, evangelization, and spiritual renewal.

The recognition given to the St. Padre Pio Shrine is a testament to the deep faith of Filipino Catholics and the growing devotion to St. Padre Pio around the world. Thousands of pilgrims visit the shrine every year to attend Mass, seek spiritual guidance, receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation, and pray through the intercession of the beloved Capuchin saint known for his holiness, humility, and extraordinary love for Christ.

This honor is not merely a title. It is an affirmation that the Philippines continues to be a beacon of Catholic faith in Asia and beyond. It highlights the vibrant spirituality of the Filipino people, whose devotion remains strong despite the challenges of modern life.

Hello Integrated Bar of the Philippines are you following the 1935 Constitution or 1987?which is which?kulang ang 12 para sa quorum*
Senate quorum rule:
Sa Article VI, Section 16(2) ng 1987 Constitution:
> "A majority of each House shall constitute a quorum to do business..."
Sa Senate = 24 members total.
Majority = 13 senators minimum 8b5a
Ano ibig sabihin:
1. 12 senators = no quorum
Kung 12 lang ang present, hindi pwede mag-approve ng bills, mag-vote, or mag-elect ng Senate President. Kailangan muna maghintay hanggang dumating yung 13th senator.
2. Pero pwede pa rin mag-meet
Pwede sila mag-discuss, mag-hearing, mag-debate. Ang bawal lang: mag-vote on official business.
3. Exception sa election
Sa SP election, 13 votes kailangan "of all members" - meaning kahit absent yung iba, 13 pa rin dapat boto para manalo. Hindi pwede yung "13 out of 12 present".

Credentials or Credibility? Heidi Mendoza's Sharp Question Exposes a Double Standard

June 4, 2026

Heidi Mendoza's recent satirical critique of Senator Rodante Marcoleta struck a nerve not because it was harsh, but because it raised a simple question that many Filipinos immediately understood: Should public arguments be judged by titles and credentials, or by logic, consistency, and merit?

In a few pointed verses, Mendoza challenged what she perceived as a glaring inconsistency. If Senator Risa Hontiveros' views can be dismissed simply because she is not a lawyer, then why does the same standard not appear to apply to Senator Robin Padilla, whom Marcoleta has worked alongside and whose participation in constitutional discussions he has not publicly discredited on similar grounds? Whether one agrees with Hontiveros or not, Mendoza's question goes to the heart of intellectual honesty: principles must be applied consistently, not selectively.

That is what makes Mendoza's criticism effective. She did not merely defend [illegible] challenged the reasoning behind the attack. In any serious debate

2026-06-05 10:32:35

That is what makes Mendoza's criticism effective. She did not merely defend Hontiveros. She challenged the reasoning behind the attack. In any serious debate, attacking a person's credentials is far easier than confronting the substance of their arguments. Yet democracy is not a contest of résumés. It is a contest of ideas. The Constitution does not reserve wisdom, patriotism, or sound judgment exclusively for lawyers. If it did, the Senate would have been designed very differently.

History itself undermines the notion that legal credentials automatically confer superior judgment. The Philippines has had brilliant lawyers who failed the public trust and non-lawyers who became effective legislators, reformers, and public servants. The true measure of a senator is not the letters attached to a name but the quality of reasoning, the integrity of convictions, and the results delivered to the Filipino people.

Mendoza's satire became even sharper when she invoked Robin Padilla's previous leadership role in constitutional discussions. Her point was not to mock Padilla personally. Rather, it was to expose what she viewed as a selective standard. If expertise is suddenly the decisive criterion when dealing with Hontiveros, why does that criterion appear less important in other situations? That If expertise is suddenly the decisive criterion when dealing with Hontiveros, why does that criterion appear less important in other situations? That question deserves an answer, not deflection.

2026-06-05 10:33:10

More importantly, Mendoza reminded the public that legislation is not an academic exercise reserved for a professional guild. Senators represent citizens from every sector of society. Their duty is to listen, deliberate, learn, consult experts, and craft laws that

2026-06-05 10:33:49

In the end, Mendoza's message can be distilled into a simple challenge: stop judging arguments by who delivers them and start judging them by whether they are true, logical, and supported by evidence. That standard is fair, intellectually honest, and democratic. More importantly, it is a standard that should apply equally to everyone—friends and critics alike.

That is why her satire landed. It was not merely humorous. It was a pointed reminder that consistency remains one of the most important tests of credibility in public life.

ng mga pera na binibigay nina Kevin Wong at Secretary Laurel Tiu at deretso nilang binibigay ito sa leader ng mga trolls na nasa second hanggang fourth floor ng isang gusali sa Valero Street, Makati City. Paminsan-minsan ay inuutusan din kami ni Mark Ticsay at Paul Estrada na magdeliver ng dalawang (2) paper bags sa namumuno o humahawak sa mga nasabing trolls.

42. Nautusan din kami ng ilang beses na mag-deliver ng medium-sized na maleta sa iba't-ibang lugar tulad ng carpark o sa mismong bahay ng isang taga media.

III. Mga Maalala Namin sa Ngayon na Dineliveran ng Pera na mga Mambabatas.

43. Marami kaming mga nasaksihan na mga mambabatas na nabigyan ng mga pera na nakasilid sa expandable envelops, paper bags, o maleta ngunit hindi naming alam ang kanilang mga pangalan pero pamilyar ang kanilang mga mukha. Sa ngayon ay ang mga sumusunod na mga mambabatas ang aming naaalala na-deliveran ng pera dahil natatandaan namin ang kanilang mga pangalan:

a. KAMI (Gumban, Larroder, Bulontante, Orbillo, Galapon at Tube), kasama si Zaldy Co, ay nagdeliver ng apat (4) na iba-t-ibang laki ng maleta kay Senator Chiz Escudero sa 9th St., No. 150 cor. Hemady, New Manila noong December 2024.

b. AKO (Gumban) kasama sina Mark Ticsay at Henry Oabina, ay nagdeliver kay Senator Erwin Tulfo ng anim (6) na medium-sized maleta sa isang bahay sa Greenhills Subdivision.

naaalala namin sa ngayon dahil sila ang napapunood namin minsan sa telebisyon o palagi namin silang nakikita pag nakakausap sila ni Zaldy Co. Nagdeliver kami mismo sa bahay ng ilan, sa HOR, at yong iba ay kinuha nila sa Unit 8 o Unit 9 ng Polo Club Townhouse, Forbes Park. Sila ay ang mga sumusunod:

a. Abante, Benny (HOR and Townhouse)
b. [redacted]
c. Adiong, Zia (HOR)
d. Alvarez, Jose (Forbes Park House)
e. Ang, Jojo (Townhouse)
f. Baronda, Julienne (Townhouse)
g. Barbers, Ace (Townhouse)
h. Bernos, Ching (HOR)
i. Brosas, Arlene (HOR and Townhouse)
j. Castro, Frans (HOR and Townhouse)
k. Chua, Joel (HOR)
z. Tulfo, Erwin (Greenhills Village and HOR)

IX. Iba Pang mga Deliveries sa mga Ibang Opisyal ng Pamahalaan.

45. Ako (Belnard Tube) ay isinama ni Zaldy Co na nagdeliver ng limang (5) large size maleta sa bahay nina Bongbong Marcos at Liza Marcos sa Ilocos Norte. Si Sandro Marcos ang nasa bahay nila noon at siya ang tumanggap, at ilang oras ang nakalipas ay dumating na rin si BBM at Liza Marcos. Gumamit kami ng eroplano na may tatak na AirTaxi.ph. Lumapag kami sa Laoag City at nag-land travel papunta sa bahay nila. Nag-overnight kami doon at may mga pictures ako na kasama si Bongbong Marcos at si Sandro Marcos sa loob ng bahay nila.

46. Nagbaba din kami (Waupan at iba pa) ng dalawang (2) medium-sized na maleta sa basement 3 ng Horizon Homes Shangri-la at doon kinuha mismo ni dating DBM Secretary Amena Pangandaman ang mga maletang ito.

47. Si retired General Gregorio Catapang, BUCOR Chief, ay siya naman ang nagdeliver ng walong (8) maleta (large at medium sizes) kay ZALDY CO sa BGC Shangrila. Habang nag-uusap sina Zaldy Co at Gregorio Catapang ay nagpa-tulong si Paul Estrada na ilipat ang mga walong (8) maleta mula sa isang

PING ON ALAN AND ROBIN AT THE SENATE

Sen. Panfilo "Ping" Lacson on Thursday pointed out the irony of lawmakers being present in the session hall after the Senate had adjourned sine die, with no official sessions scheduled.

This came after Senators Alan Peter Cayetano and Robin Padilla were seen inside the Senate plenary hall on Thursday morning, ahead of their scheduled Blue Ribbon Committee hearing.

"Kung kelan walang pasok at adjourned sine die na, saka naman nasa session hall..." Lacson wrote on X.

Alan Cayetano-led bloc is currently holding a hearing with 18 ex-Marines on the flood control mess, attended by Senators Padilla, Rodante Marcoleta and Imee Marcos, led by Senator Pia Cayetano.

ON 'MALETA' ACCUSATION VS FR. FLAVIE VILLANUEVA
These allegations are not merely false. They are malicious, defamatory, and a grave injustice against a priest who has devoted his life to serving the poor, accompanying EJK victims and their families, and defending the dignity of those whose voices are often unheard.
We strongly condemn the reckless public airing of serious accusations unsupported by evidence and contradicted by readily verifiable facts.
Truth deserves protection. And those who deliberately defame others in the guise of testimony must likewise be held accountable.

Nagdepensa si House Deputy Speaker kag Iloilo 1st District Representative Janette Garin nga wala sang basehan ang akusasyon sa iya sang "ex-marines" kaangot sa isyu sang maleta.

Nalakip si Garin sa mga Ilonggo lawmakers nga yara sa affidavit sang 18 "former marines" nga ginaalegar nakabaton sang mga maleta nga may kuwarta.

SAME MODUS? FROM THE 'BALIGOD LIST' IN PDAF TO THE 'MALETA DELIVERIES' IN THE FLOOD CONTROL PROBE

Questions about the credibility of witness-generated lists resurfaced after the self-identified "18 ex-Marines" named dozens of politicians and public figures as alleged recipients of cash-filled suitcases during the Cayetano bloc's "Senate Blue Ribbon Committee hearing" on the flood control scandal.

The development has drawn comparisons to the 2014 controversy surrounding the so-called "Luy list" in the pork barrel scam—particularly because lawyer Levito Baligod, who figured prominently in that earlier dispute, is also counsel for the "18 ex-Marines."

In 2014, the late Sen. Miriam Defensor Santiago questioned the authenticity of the list attributed to pork barrel whistleblower Benhur Luy and considered filing disbarment proceedings against Baligod after he admitted that he had prepared the document.

According to Santiago, Baligod was the one who drew up the so-called "Luy list," which was later circulated publicly.

"It appears that Baligod, by his own admission, concocted the list and distributed it," Santiago said in a statement issued at the time.

Santiago argued that if Luy had no role in preparing the list, Baligod should bear responsibility for its contents and face possible legal and professional sanctions.

More than a decade later, Baligod is representing the "18 ex-Marines" and assisted them in the preparation and execution of affidavits that linked numerous lawmakers, former officials, and other personalities to alleged cash deliveries related to the flood control scandal.

Several of those named have denied the allegations and challenged the credibility of the testimony, pointing to inconsistencies between the ex-Marines' affidavits and their Scums like Baligod and his conspirators think nothing of destroying my reputation. If there is any justice in this world, Baligod and his backers should be drawn, quartered, and their severed heads hung from the highest Rizal Park flagpoles.

YOUNG STUDENT BRINGS PET CARABAO IN BRIGADA ESKWELA IN CAGAYAN

LOOK: An incoming Grade 7 student and his 3-year-old carabao drew attention during Brigada Eskwela activities at Bangag Elementary School in Lal-lo, Cagayan.

12-year-old John Michael Andres volunteered to plow the school's garden with his pet carabao so it would be ready for vegetable planting when classes begin, according to School Principal Lilia Tayanim.

Beyond his studies, the young student helps his family plant and harvest corn to support their household income, particularly as the new school year nears. Teachers also praised his eagerness to learn, noting that he improved his reading skills by singing along to videoke songs.

Despite his family's financial challenges, John Michael is known for being hardworking, helping his family with farm work, and actively participating in school activities. He hopes to become an agricultural technician and support farmers like his father in the future.

I remember Fr Flavie in the following stories:... more

STATEMENT

TO THE ALLEGATIONS RAISED BY THE 18 MARINES DURING THE SENATE BLUE RIBBON COMMITTEE HEARING | JUNE 4, 2026

We issue this statement in response to allegations made during a Senate committee hearing today in which Rev. Fr. Flaviano Antonio L. Villanueva, SVD, was specifically accused of receiving money through an envelope allegedly delivered near a church on Mindanao Avenue, Quezon City, and through a suitcase allegedly delivered to an address identified as "33 Clemente."

We categorically deny these allegations. They are false.

The witness publicly attributed to Fr. Villanueva acts and transactions that never occurred.

The allegation involving a supposed delivery near a church on Mindanao Avenue collapses on its own facts. No specific church was identified, and no SVD parish, church, or ministry center exists along Mindanao Avenue, Quezon City that matches the witness's description.

The allegation involving the supposed delivery of a suitcase at "33 Clemente" is unsupported by any evidence and is nothing more than a fabricated accusation.

These allegations are not merely false. They are malicious, defamatory, and a grave injustice against a priest who has devoted his life to serving the poor, accompanying EJK victims and their families, and defending the dignity of those whose voices are often unheard.

We strongly condemn the reckless public airing of serious accusations unsupported by evidence and contradicted by readily verifiable facts. No person's reputation should be placed on trial on the basis of allegations that cannot withstand the most basic scrutiny.

Fr. Villanueva has long endured attacks because he chose to stand beside victims of violence and to give voice to those who could not speak for themselves. We will not allow decades of faithful ministry to be tarnished by fabricated stories and reckless accusations.

Legal action has already been initiated. We intend to hold accountable those who have chosen to bear false witness.

Fr. Villanueva will continue his ministry undeterred and will continue to stand with the poor, with victims, and with those who seek truth and justice.

Truth deserves protection.

And those who deliberately defame others in the guise of testimony must likewise be held accountable. END///

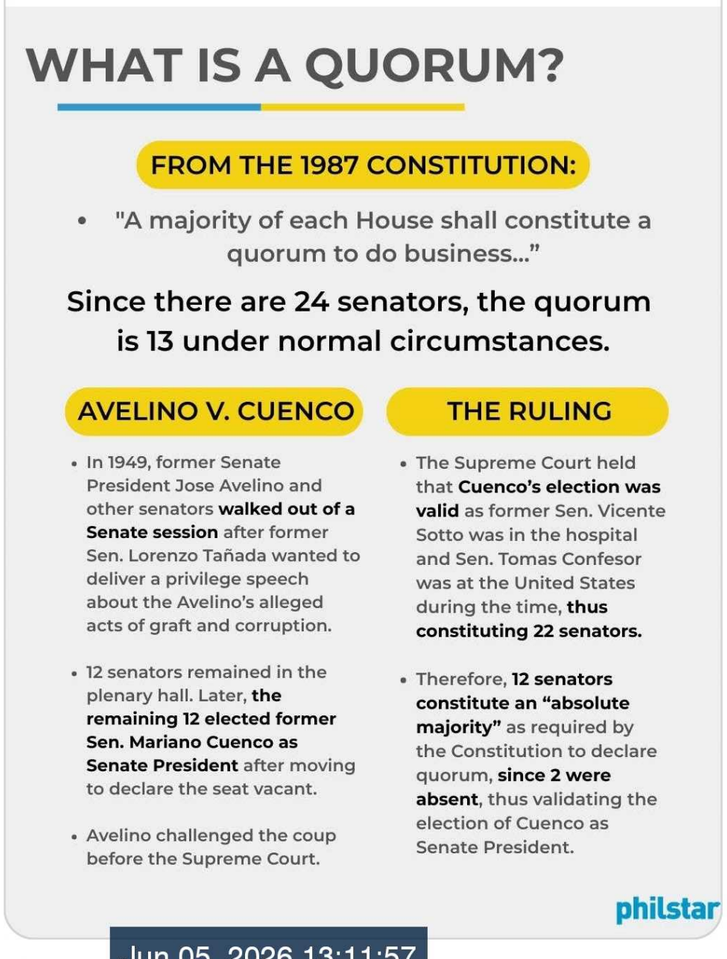
HOW DOES A SENATE QUORUM WORK?... more



WHAT IS A QUORUM?
FROM THE 1987 CONSTITUTION:
• "A majority of each House shall constitute a quorum to do business..."
Since there are 24 senators, the quorum is 13 under normal circumstances.
AVELINO V. CUENCO
• In 1949, former Senate President Jose Avelino and other senators walked out of a Senate session after former Sen. Lorenzo Tañada wanted to deliver a privilege speech about the Avelino's alleged acts of graft and corruption.
• 12 senators remained in the plenary hall. Later, the remaining 12 elected former Sen. Mariano Cuenco as Senate President after moving to declare the seat vacant.
• Avelino challenged the coup before the Supreme Court.
THE RULING
• The Supreme Court held that Cuenco's election was valid as former Sen. Vicente Sotto was in the hospital and Sen. Tomas Confesor was at the United States during the time, thus constituting 22 senators.
• Therefore, 12 senators constitute an "absolute majority" as required by the Constitution to declare quorum, since 2 were absent, thus validating the election of Cuenco as Senate President.

Broadcast journalist Kara David responded to Sen. Rodante Marcoleta after he referred to media as “bayaran” during a Senate Blue Ribbon Committee hearing.

“Hindi kami bayaran,” David wrote in a Facebook post.

Marcoleta later apologized, saying his statement came from frustration over the issues discussed during the hearing involving alleged testimonies from former Marines on flood control-related kickbacks.

He clarified that he did not intend to insult the media.

Ginkadlawan lamang ni former Philippine National Police (PNP) Chief General Nicolas Torre III ang paglawag sang iya pangalan nga isa sa ginaalegar nagpangaluyag sa “former marines” agud nga indi sila magkanta sa isyu sang flood control scandal.

Taylor Swift released her new song, "I Knew It, I Knew You," for the upcoming film "Toy Story 5." The singer announced her new song as she shared a vintage home video on social media showing herself as a little girl marching in a red cowgirl hat and a boots-embroidered shirt.

"Writing this song felt like a musical departure and coming home at the same time. Creating something for Jessie was a new challenge and also felt like second nature all at once. And being a Toy Story kid from the age of 5 til now... is an adventure I plan to be on, to infinity and beyond," she wrote.

STATEMENT OF LAW DEANS, PROFESSORS OF JURIDICAL SCIENCE AND POLITICAL THEORISTS ON THE SENATE

Our people are confused – and they are weary of the incessant wrangling that threatens the credibility of an institution essential to the workings of our democracy. The employees of the Senate, we surmise reasonably, must be even more confused -- and troubled. Whose orders are they to follow?

We consider it our obligation as professors of law and the juridical sciences to lend whatever clarity we can to a muddled situation. We will do so in as direct a manner as possible.

Hardly has it ever happened that legislative business could not proceed because of the deliberate refusal of some members of the Senate to appear at the Session Hall for the conduct of legislative business. It was profoundly disturbing and confusing to us and to the entire nation.

Was there a quorum on June 3?

Section 16, paragraph 2 of Article VI of the 1987 Constitution defines a quorum as “a majority of each House” for the purpose of doing business.

While 24 senators were elected, one of them, Ronald “Bato” de la Rosa, has been in hiding – his whereabouts unknown. To insist that he should be counted in determining a majority for purposes of quorum is to accord someone who is evading arrest and the processes of law, and deliberately putting himself beyond the reach of any legal coercion, the power to hold the entire legislature hostage. It is a choice between insistence on numbers over the functioning of the Legislative Branch of government. Certainly, it could not have been the intent of the framers of the Constitution to give any member either of the House of Repres[illegible] the power to cause a deadlock that makes all legislative business impossible deadlock that makes all legislative business impossible. Then, of course, there is the fact that Senator Jinggoy Estrada is currently under detention and is factually unable to participate in the proceedings of the Senate.

When, in Avelino v. Cuenco. G.R. 2821 (March 4, 1949), the Supreme Court was asked to rule on the constitutionality of a Senate session with only twelve senators, the Court ruled:

"In fine, all the four justices agree that the Court being confronted with the practical situation that of the twenty three senators who may participate in the Senate deliberations in the days immediately after this decision, twelve senators will support Senator Cuenco and, at most, eleven will side with Senator Avelino, it would be most injudicious to declare the latter as the rightful President of the Senate, that office being essentially one that depends exclusively upon the will of the majority of the senators, the rule of the Senate about tenure of the President of that body being amenable at any time by that majority. And at any session hereafter held with thirteen or more senators, in order to avoid all controversy arising from the divergence of opinion here about quorum and for the benefit of all concerned, the said twelve senators who approved the resolutions herein involved could ratify all their acts and thereby place them beyond the shadow of a doubt."

Even without addressing the question of the election of a Senate President, what this pronouncement of the Supreme Court calls attention to is its sensitivity to political realities – and the political reality is that 12 chose to appear to discharge their duties as senators, while 11 chose to stay away, shirking from their bounden duty!

Furthermore, this is not the first time that 12 is considered a quorum. On May 5, 2015, then Senate President Franklin Drilon declared a quorum of 12 senators out of 17 "available" senators, the rest being "unavailable" by reason of absence from the country or detention. This was not unconstitutional. It was allowing function to prevail over literal insistence on a given number.

Jun 05, 2026 13:35:31

This was not unconstitutional. It was allowing function to prevail over literal insistence on a given number.

When the Constitution requires a "majority of each House" it contemplates a majority of the members actually deliberating and voting on measures. This is where citing once more the functional approach of the Supreme Court is apropos:

" …and thirdly because in view of the absence from the country of Senator Tomas Confesor twelve senators constitute a majority of the Senate of twenty three senators. When the Constitution declares that a majority of 'each House' shall constitute a quorum, 'the House': does not mean 'all' the members. Even a majority of all the members constitute 'the House'. (Missouri Pac. vs. Kansas, 63 Law ed. [U. S.], p. 239). There is a difference between a majority of 'the House', the latter requiring less number than the first. Therefore an absolute majority (12) of all the members of the Senate less one (23), constitutes constitutional majority of the Senate for the purpose of a quorum."

Nobody Claims that 12 = 13!

The question has been asked: Since when has 12 become 13, and the plain answer is NEVER, but the premise is mistaken, because it assumes that 13 is the magic number for a quorum. That would be so were the membership of the Senate undisturbed. Let it be assumed ex hypothesi that one senator is deceased, and we would have the same situation where 12 report for a session and 11 do not, would it be insisted that 24 remains the reckoning number for determining quorum?

While Mr. de la Rosa is not deceased, his attendance cannot be compelled and therefore he is really not an "available" member of the Senate.

Jun 05, 2026 13:35:45

Has the 1987 Constitution rendered Avelino Obsolescent?

Avelino was decided under the aegis of the 1935 Constitution and in respect to the Senate, that Constitution provided:

Section 2. The Senate shall be composed of twenty-four Senators who shall be chosen at large by the qualified electors of the Philippines, as may be provided by law.

Therefore, whatever rule was laid down in respect to quorum in the Avelino case continues to apply because the composition of the Senate has remained unchanged.

A Political Decision

Since 12 of 23 senators have decided that Senator Sherwin Gatchalian is President Pro-Tempore of the Senate, then certainly there is no way that one who can count on only 11 votes in his support – including his own – can continue to assert his leadership over a body, majority of whose members have repudiated him.

We call on our legislators to act as true statesmen and to return to the urgent business to which the Senate must attend, among the most important of which is the conduct of the impeachment trial of the Vice-President. We call on those who have so far caused the Senate sessions to stall to desist from derailing the trial of the Vice-President.

TAYLOR IS BACK TO HER COUNTRY ROOTS! 🤠

American singer-songwriter Taylor Swift is returning to her country roots with the release of her new original song, "I Knew It, I Knew You," for the animated film "Toy Story 5."

"Writing this song felt like a musical departure and coming home at the same time. Creating something for Jessie was a new challenge and also felt like second nature all at once," Taylor wrote on Instagram.

"And being a [Toy Story] kid from the age of 5 til now... is an adventure I plan to be on, to infinity and beyond," she added.

The track was released on June 5, ahead of the film's Philippine premiere on June 17.

Credentials or Credibility? Heidi Mendoza's Sharp Question Exposes a Double Standard

June 4, 2026

Heidi Mendoza's recent satirical critique of Senator Rodante Marcoleta struck a nerve not because it was harsh, but because it raised a simple question that many Filipinos immediately understood: Should public arguments be judged by titles and credentials, or by logic, consistency, and merit?

In a few pointed verses, Mendoza challenged what she perceived as a glaring inconsistency. If Senator Risa Hontiveros' views can be dismissed simply because she is not a lawyer, then why does the same standard not appear to apply to Senator Robin Padilla, whom Marcoleta has worked alongside and whose participation in constitutional discussions he has not publicly discredited on similar grounds? Whether one agrees with Hontiveros or not, Mendoza's question goes to the heart of intellectual honesty: principles must be applied consistently, not selectively.

That is what makes Mendoza's criticism effective. She did not merely defend Hontiveros. She challenged the reasoning behind the attack. In any serious debate, attacking a person's credentials is far easier than confronting the substance of their arguments. Yet democracy is not a contest of résumés. It is a contest of ideas. The Constitution does not reserve wisdom, patriotism, or sound judgment exclusively for lawyers. If it did, the Senate would have been designed very differently.

History itself undermines the notion that legal credentials automatically confer superior judgment. The Philippines has had brilliant lawyers who failed the public trust and non-lawyers who became effective legislators, reformers, and public servants. The true measure of a senator is not the letters attached to a name but the quality of reasoning, the integrity of convictions, and the results delivered to the Filipino people.

Mendoza's satire became even sharper when she invoked Robin Padilla's previous leadership role in constitutional discussions. Her point was not to mock Padilla personally. Rather, it was to expose what she viewed as a selective standard. If expertise is suddenly the decisive criterion when dealing with Hontiveros, why does that criterion appear less important in other situations? That question deserves an answer, not deflection.

More importantly, Mendoza reminded the public that legislation is not an academic exercise reserved for a professional guild. Senators represent citizens from every sector of society. Their duty is to listen, deliberate, learn, consult experts, and craft laws that improve lives. A lawmaker's effectiveness cannot be measured solely by professional background. It must also be measured by competence, diligence, intellectual honesty, and commitment to public service.

What resonated with many observers was not merely Mendoza's wit. It was the principle behind it. Public discourse deteriorates when credentials become weapons used selectively against political opponents while being conveniently ignored when allies are involved. Such inconsistency weakens credibility and distracts from substantive debate.

In the end, Mendoza's message can be distilled into a simple challenge: stop judging arguments by who delivers them and start judging them by whether they are true, logical, and supported by evidence. That standard is fair, intellectually honest, and democratic. More importantly, it is a standard that should apply equally to everyone—friends and critics alike.

That is why her satire landed. It was not merely humorous. It was a pointed reminder that consistency remains one of the most important tests of credibility in public life.

BISHOP DEBUNKS NONEXISTENT CHURCH CLAIMS IN THURSDAY HEARING

Diocese of Cubao Bishop Elias Ayuban confirmed on Friday that the religious congregation Society of the Divine Word has no church in Mindanao Avenue, contrary to a claim that surfaced in the hearing led by Senate President Alan Peter Cayetano on Thursday.

During the hearing, priest-activist Fr. Flaviano Villanueva was accused of receiving cash in the mentioned church. Later, an organization founded by Villanueva said that no such church exists in the supposed location.

"Let us then be vigilant in seeking and speaking the truth, for falsehood is never from God. Let us work together to combat disinformation and uphold the truth with charity and responsibility," the prelate wrote.

(Qaqu! Halatang nireview pero nakalimutan.)

Also, matetrace parin yan by record kasi may ififill-out si client bago makabili ng USD! Hindi ka makakabili na walang documentation.

Tapos syempre maniniwala na naman ang mga 8080.

I was a former Bank Manager and alam namin ang kakayahan ng mga money changer in terms of handling USD. Sa amin nga sa banks, nagrerequest pa kami sa cash hub ng USD. So si money changer has the capacity to store huge USD sa kanilang branch? LOL

The worsening conflict in the Senate is a precursor of the US-China war in the future.

Cayetano's mother is 100% pure American.

Gatchalian's father is 100% pure Chinese.

Logic 101:

Pro Cayetano is Pro US.

Pro Gachalian is Pro China.

Just like the majority of 24 is 12!

ERWIN QUESTIONS 'EX-MARINES" TESTIMONY, NOTES OMISSION OF LOREN, MARK

Senate Blue Ribbon Committee Chairperson Erwin Tulfo on Thursday questioned why the self-identified "18 ex-Marines" did not mention Sen. Loren Legarda and Sen. Mark Villar during their testimony in the "Senate Blue Ribbon Committee hearing" on the flood control scandal, despite their inclusion in earlier affidavits.

In an interview on DZBB Super Radyo's "Dobol B sa Dobol Weng," Tulfo raised concern over the discrepancy between the written affidavits and the oral testimony presented during the hearing.

Tulfo noted that while he and Sen. Tito Sotto were named by the witnesses as allegedly receiving suitcases of cash, Legarda and Villar were not mentioned during the proceedings.

Both Tulfo and Sotto have denied the allegations.

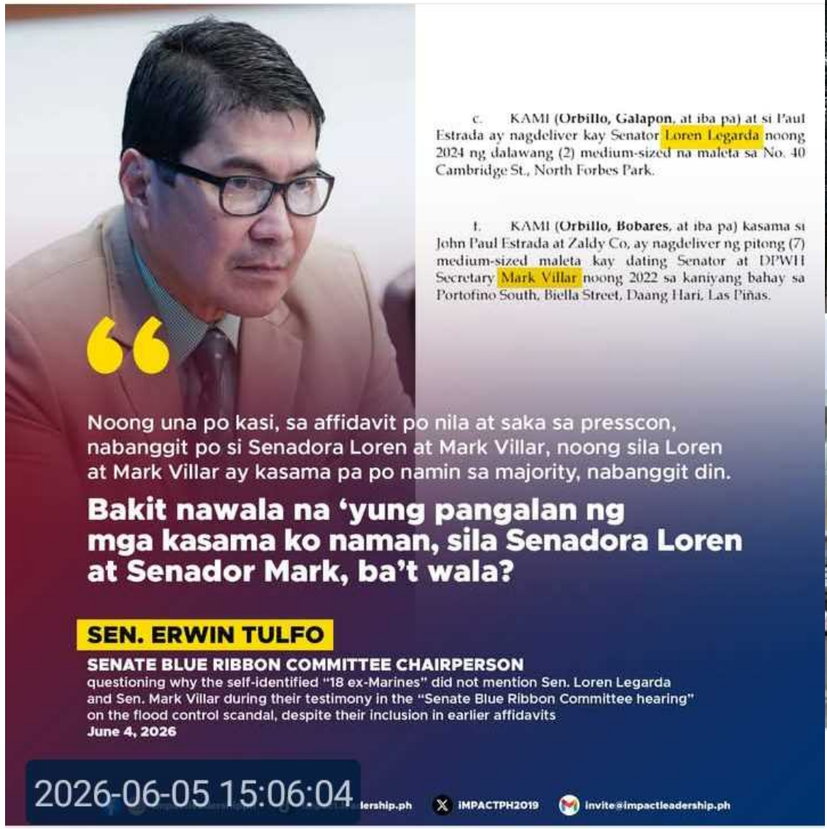
He also described the separate Blue Ribbon hearing conducted under former Senate President Alan Peter Cayetano's bloc as "one-sided."

Tulfo said he will summon the same ex-Marines to his panel's hearing on Monday, June 8, to further clarify inconsistencies in their statements.

"Kailangan po kasi baka kami, sabihin ng tao, kaya nagtatago tayo, kinatatakutan natin. Eh tatanungin ko lamang po anong dahilan, 'yung mga hindi po natanong ni Senator Marcoleta itatanong ko," Tulfo said.

"Saka itatanong ko, ipapaalala ko po sa kanila, bakit nawala na 'yung pangalan ng mga kasama ko naman, sila Senadora Loren at Senador Mark, ba't wala?" he added.

Tulfo said he will summon the same ex-Marines to his panel's hearing on Monday, June 8, to further clarify inconsistencies in their statements.



c. KAMI (Orbillo, Galapon, at iba pa) at si Paul Estrada ay nagdeliver kay Senator Loren Legarda noong 2024 ng dalawang (2) medium-sized na maleta sa No. 40 Cambridge St., North Forbes Park.
f. KAMI (Orbillo, Bobares, at iba pa) kasama si John Paul Estrada at Zaldy Co, ay nagdeliver ng pitong (7) medium-sized maleta kay dating Senator at DPWH Secretary Mark Villar noong 2022 sa kaniyang bahay sa Portofino South, Biella Street, Daang Hari, Las Piñas.
Noong una po kasi, sa affidavit po nila at saka sa presscon, nabanggit po si Senadora Loren at Mark Villar, noong sila Loren at Mark Villar ay kasama pa po namin sa majority, nabanggit din.
Bakit nawala na 'yung pangalan ng mga kasama ko naman, sila Senadora Loren at Senador Mark, ba't wala?

"NOT A HEARING BUT A GATHERING."

Acting Senate President Sherwin Gatchalian dismisses the Cayetano bloc's flood control probe as an unofficial "gathering," noting that the testimonies linking the Marcos family and senators to the scandal were unofficial and "selective."

Gatchalian says the official Blue Ribbon hearing led by new chair Sen. Erwin Tulfo will push through on Monday, where resource persons can make official statements.

What's your take on this? Follow ANC 24/7.

"Iyong pagtitipon na iyon, hindi iyon hearing, iyon ay para sa akin, isang gathering.
At yung gaganaping hearing on Monday, ayun ang official hearing na ang chairman ay si Sen. Erwin Tulfo.
Yung mga sinasabi nila, pinipili nila. Hindi rin tama. Kung gusto nila magsabi nang totoo, dapat lahat-lahat at gawin sa official venue."

'DISINFORMATION IS THE WORK OF THE DEVIL'

Itinanggi ni Cubao Bishop Elias Ayuban Jr. ang alegasyon ni Joely Cadiao, isa sa nagpakilalang "ex-marines," na nag-deliver siya ng envelope at maletang may pera kay Fr. Flavie Villanueva sa isang simbahan sa Mindanao Ave. sa Quezon City.

Sinegundahan ng obispo ang pahayag ng ilang grupo na walang simbahan ng Society of the Divine Word, kung saan kabilang si Fr. Villanueva, sa naturang lugar.

"Let us be vigilant in seeking and speaking the truth, for falsehood is never from God. Let us work together to combat disinformation and uphold the truth with charity and responsibility," payo ni Ayuban.

Did you know that in June 2021, Manny Pacquiao publicly accused the Duterte administration of having far worse corruption than the previous government?

Pacquiao himself said that corruption under Duterte was “three times more corrupt” than the past administration. This was not a small accusation. It was a direct and explosive claim coming from someone who was once one of Duterte’s strongest allies.

In response, Rodrigo Duterte aggressively challenged Pacquiao to name the officials and agencies involved. Duterte even warned him that if he could not provide proof, he would campaign against him in the 2022 elections.

But Pacquiao immediately accepted the challenge.

He pointed to agencies such as the Department of Health, especially over the multi-billion peso pandemic spending controversies, including the alleged purchase of overpriced rapid test kits, face masks, and PPEs.

2026-06-05 19:51:26

He also mentioned the Department of Public Works and Highways, where corruption had allegedly become deeply rooted and widespread. He raised concerns about programmatic corruption in the DPWH, along with the missing ₱10.4 billion in pandemic financial aid under the Department of Social Welfare and Development.

And now, looking back, the corruption allegations involving the DPWH during Duterte’s term become even more disturbing. Even the Discayas reportedly said they started engaging with the DPWH as early as 2016, the very year Duterte came into power.

This means these anomalies did not suddenly appear out of nowhere. They were already happening under Duterte’s watch.

Yet instead of aggressively exposing and stopping these corrupt practices, Duterte chose to downplay, deflect, and bury the issue. Why? Because the corruption was happening inside his own government, under his own leadership, and among agencies that benefited from his political protection.

Pacquiao called it out. Duterte challenged him.

2026-06-05 19:51:36

Pacquiao called it out. Duterte challenged him. Pacquiao answered.

But in the end, the Duterte administration did not seriously clean house. It protected the system that allowed these anomalies to grow.

In fact, as mentioned by Discaya during the Senate Blue Ribbon hearing that the flood control scandal worsened when Rodrigo came to power.

It is in 2016 that the Discayas started to build their empire and got their hands on juicy flood-control projects.

The greatest irony is that Duterte branded himself as an anti-corruption president, but when corruption was exposed within his own government, he chose political survival over accountability.

And now the same people who masterminded this abomination wants to install another Duterte in office?

Bahagyang naging emosyonal si Sen. Alan Peter Cayetano nitong Huwebes (Hunyo 4) nang mabanggit ang kawalan niya ng oras para sa kaniyang pamilya, at magpahiwatig ng pagpapaubaya ng liderato ng Senado.

"Kung ako lang, parang gusto nang sabihin na isa, dalawa sa kanila, 'Ipahiram niyo na 'yung boto.' Ang hirap ng pinagdadaanan nila, tapos para bang ako lang ang nakikinabang dahil ako ang SP," aniya.

Pagbabahagi pa ni Cayetano: "I told my sister (Sen. Pia Cayetano) kanina... Sabi ko, 'Ate, part of me wishes may trese sila kahapon, para tapos na."

Iginiit ni Sen. Loren Legarda na hindi umano maaaring gamitin ang Avelino doctrine upang baguhin ang Constitutional requirements para sa Senate leadership.

Iniutos ng alkalde ng Davao City na gawing collection point o tambakan ng basura ang labas ng tanggapan ng Department of Environment and Natural Resources–Region 11.

Iyan ay para daw makita ng ahensya ang problema sa basura na walang mapagdalhan dahil isinara ang landfill.

Such a measure risks creating a chilling effect, where fear of criminal prosecution discourages people from speaking critically on urgent social and political issues.
It is especially dangerous in the current political climate where state agencies and powerful and moneyed interests have repeatedly weaponized laws against critics and independent media.

Ikinababahala ng ilang mambabatas at grupo ang posibleng epekto ng isinusulong na anti-"fake news" bill sa Kamara dahil maaari anila nitong masupil ang malayang pagpapahayag at lehitimong pagpuna.

May nakikitang iregularidad ang ilang legal expert sa ginawang pagdinig ng Blue Ribbon Committee ng Cayetano bloc ng Senado.

Posible rin daw sumabit ang mga dating sundalong humarap sa pagdinig sakaling habulin sila ng mga inakusahan nilang tumanggap ng male-maletang pera.

Sinisikap pa ng GMA News na makuha ang panig ng Cayetano bloc ukol dito.

SUSUGURIN ANG MALACAÑAN?

Walang natatanggap na kumpirmasyon ang Palasyo sa sinasabing plano umano ng destabilizers sa Independence Day.

Base sa post ng kolumnistang si Ramon Tulfo, may intelligence report umano ang Philippine National Police (PNP) na susugurin ng pro-Sara groups ang Palasyo sa June 12.

Giit ni Castro, nakahanda naman ang law enforcement agencies kung totoong may ganitong klase ng ilegal na aktibidad.

"Hindi naman bago ang mga ganitong aksyon dahil noon pa nila nais iluklok sa puwesto ang kanilang poon na gahaman sa kapangyarihan kahit wala pa ang 2028," dagdag ng undersecretary. | via Maricel Halili

'AT RISK OF SLIPPING INTO POVERTY'

Nasa 27.7% ng mga Pilipino ang nananatiling nasa panganib na malugmok sa kahirapan, base sa report ng World Bank.

Sa kanilang Philippines Poverty and Equity Assessment, iginiit ng World Bank na patuloy ang pagbaba ng poverty rate sa bansa. Base sa latest available data, bumaba ito sa 15.5% noong 2023.

Sa kabila nito, sinabi nilang nananatiling "vulnerable" ang naturang mga Pinoy sa food at fuel prices shocks.

"The rise of global fuel prices associated with the 2026 Middle East conflict illustrates precisely this risk: higher transport and energy costs ripple into food prices and household budgets, with the potential to push nearly 2 million Filipinos into poverty," base sa report. | via BusinessWorld

Humarap sa isang Senate hearing ang 18 nagpakilalang ex-Marines nitong June 4. Sa kanilang pagdalo sa Senado, inilahad nila ang umano'y malawakang pag-deliver ng mga maleta na naglalaman ng cash sa ilang opisyal ng pamahalaan.

Pero sino nga ba ang 18 ex-Marines at ano ang kanilang kinalaman sa flood control investigation? Alamin ang mga detalye sa video na ito. https://youtu.be/OXLSnsXC5HE

JUST IN: Hiring blew past expectations in May, registering at a blockbuster clip despite a continued rise in inflation set off by the war in Iran.

The U.S. added 172,000 jobs in May, according to the report, which marked an acceleration from 115,000 jobs added in April.

The reading for April exceeded economists' expectations. The reading amounted to a slight downshift from March, when the U.S. economy gained 185,000 jobs.

God of War: Laufey - specifically designed to piss off the worst people you know.

Yorch Torch Games
@YorchTorchGames

Remember when the wokie crowd and all the modern Sony shills told us:

"No one is trying to replace Kratos!"

Well, here's the lamest video game concept ever.

Modern woke trash at its worst that could never make it on its own without the God of War label.

Uglified and all.
